CSI Coordinator	Welcome to Jennifer Vice-Reshel (CSI Operations Coordinator), and Megan Harshbarger (CSI Program Coordinator).	None	N/A	N/A
Emergency Detention Process	Becky reports starting 7/1/16 DCP will need to provide direct contact (face to face or phone) with individual being considered for Emergency Detention prior to approval. Circumstances may prevent this including client's current medical condition. DCP received a grant to prepare for this. Grant will be used to have non-violent intervention training, CIT training for law enforcement, trauma-informed care training for DCP staff, and the hiring of an additional crisis worker. Becky reports also they will be using the Columbia Suicide Severity Scale as an assessment tool for this assessment.	None	N/A	N/A
Gun/opioid handout	Group suggested to get approval from Alcohol/Drug group prior to sending out.	Contact Bill lamb of this sub-group to get feedback.	Gregg	2/24/16 update.
Suicide Prevention Task Force	Jim reports this group started meeting in December. Dr. Janet McCord from Marian University is taking the lead. Current goal is to have training in October of this year for various gatekeepers (educators, law enforcement, mental health providers, etc.) on suicide assessment. Goal is to get area gatekeepers to use consistent tool.	Contact Jim if you want to be part of this group.	N/A	N/A

Provider Survey	Group suggests CSI send out survey to area mental health providers and request the following information: Who is doing what type of services? What insurances do you accept? What expertise do you have? What groups are you currently holding? Would you be interested in your licensed staff to participate in EMDR training or Trauma informed CBT, or motivational interviewing for non-licensed staff? What % of your caseload is trauma-based clients (that may benefit from EMDR or Trauma informed CBT) What is the average length a new client has to wait to be seen in your office?	Send Megan and Jennifer any other questions you would suggest for survey.	Team	By 2/15/16
